When applying for Disability or Low Income exemptions, below are the Social Security requirements:

Disability Exemption Requirements

In order to qualify for the Disability Exemption, one of the following must be provided.

- Social Security award letter must contain the verbiage
"YOU ARE ENTITLED TO MONTHLY DISABILITY BENEFITS".

OR

- DR-416 provided by the Property Appraiser's office. This document must be completed by a certified Florida physician and completed in its totality.

Low Income Senior Exemption Requirement

In order to qualify for the Low Income Senior / Long Term Senior Exemption, proof of all income for all household members must be provided.

- When part or all of the income received is from Social Security, an SSA-1099 for the previous tax year (from the tax year applying for) must be provided if tax return is self-prepared or applicant does not file a tax return.

The documents provided by the Social Security Administration can be obtained directly from the Social Security office by either calling or signing up for an online account.
